

HOW TO FIND PROPERTY AUCTIONS

AUCTION WEBSITES:

There are a handful of websites dedicated to finding property auctions. Auction.com and Hudson & Marshall are some of our favorites.

NEWSPAPERS:

Local newspapers can be a gold mine of property auctions. Check the legal notices section.

THE U.S. TREASURY:

The U.S. Treasury holds approximately 300 public auctions every year with many good real estate deals.

GOOGLE SEARCH:

You'd be surprised at how many deals you can find simply by typing "foreclosure auctions" into Google.
